

WHO IS IN YOUR EAR?

Part Two Questions Mordecai and Esther

1. Does the person in your ear show you respect, love, and compassion?
2. Do they look at you as family?
3. Is the person in your ear checking in on you out of concern for your well-being?
4. Is the person in your ear giving you advice to help you benefit from or to fail?
5. Is the person in your ear keeping you informed of what's going on around you to keep you covered? Or are they waiting to see you get attacked?

These questions are to help you to decipher the advice that you receive from someone to know the difference of good advice verses bad.
